S I R S:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that upon the annexed Affidavit of Thomas K. Lindgren sworn to on July 10, 2008, the Petition for Removal dated June 30, 2008 and the Exhibits annexed and upon all the papers and proceedings previously had herein, the undersigned will move this Court, before the Hon. Shira A. Scheindlin, United States District Judge, at 500 Pearl Street, New York 10007, at a date and time to be determined by the Court for an order pursuant to 28 USCS 1447 remanding this case to the Surrogate's Court of Westchester County on the grounds that the removal from State Court to Federal Court was untimely, improper and that Kevin McKeown has waived any right to removal, and for such other and further relief as to this court deems just and proper.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

THOMAS K. LINDGREN, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am an attorney at law admitted to practice in the courts of New York and in North Carolina and admitted to practice in the Southern District of New York and am a member of the firm of Poyner & Spruill, co-counsel with Patricia Bave-Planell, attorneys for the respondent, Mary McKeown Virga in the above Probate Proceeding in Surrogate's Court, Westchester County. I make this affidavit in support of the Motion of Mary McKeown Virga to remand this case from Federal Court back to State Court. I am familiar with the facts set forth in this affidavit based upon my representation of Mary Virga in this matter since June, 2004.

2. Decedent Margaret McKeown died on August 26, 2003, survived by her four adult children: Mary, Kevin, Thomas and Ronald. Pursuant to her last will and testament dated May 31, 2003, Mary Virga and Kevin McKeown were named as Co-Executors.

3. Kevin McKeown filed a Petition for Removal on June 30, 2008. Annexed as Exhibit A is the Petition for Removal and accompanying papers.

4. On the same day, June 30, 2008, The Honorable Gerald Loehr, Acting Surrogate, rendered his Decision and Order on a Motion and Cross Motions for Summary Judgment. Kevin

08 CIV. 5914
Surrogate's Court Westchester County
File No. 2239/2003

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO REMAND

For Referral to the Hon. Shira A.
Scheindlin as related to 08 CIV 2391 (SAS)

McKeown did not file any opposition to the Motion or Cross Motions for Summary Judgment.

Annexed as Exhibit B is a copy of Judge Loehr's Order and Decision.

5. This Estate Proceeding which Kevin McKeown seeks to have removed and adjudicated in Federal Court was commenced in Surrogate's Court of Westchester County on September 4, 2003 by the filing of a Probate Petition. The Estate proceeding was commenced by Kevin McKeown, the same person who now seeks to have this action removed. Kevin McKeown commenced the proceeding as Co-Executor of the Estate of Margaret McKeown.

6. This matter should be immediately remanded to Surrogate's Court, Westchester County, on each of the following grounds:

- A. The Petition for Removal was not timely filed;
- B. That Kevin McKeown waived his right to removal by participating in State Court proceedings for over 4 years.
- C. That Kevin McKeown has waived his right to removal since he is only seeking to resort to this Court as a pretext for "appealing" adverse decisions against him in the State Court Surrogate's proceeding.
- D. That this Court had no original jurisdiction over this matter.

A. PETITION FOR REMOVAL WAS NOT TIMELY FILED.

7. It is uncontested that the underlying Probate Proceeding in Surrogate's Court, Westchester County, was commenced in September 2003 and clearly this Petition for Removal has not been filed within 30 days.

8. Kevin McKeown claims that notice is timely under 28 USCS § 1446(b) in that three Orders of the Honorable Gerald Loehr dated June 13, 2008, June 14, 2008 and June 16, 2008 set forth removable federal claims which triggered the thirty-day removal period. Annexed as Exhibit C are the three Orders which Kevin McKeown refers to.

9. Kevin McKeown sets forth no legal authority demonstrating that the three Orders set forth any possible federal questions and two of the three Orders were Discovery Orders of Preclusion granted upon default against Kevin McKeown for his failure to provide discovery pursuant to a prior discovery Order.

10. The three Orders which Kevin McKeown claims make his Petition timely were simply three Orders which went against him. To date, we have not received any Notices of Appeals regarding these Orders.

B. PETITIONER HAS WAIVED HIS RIGHT TO REMOVAL BY PARTICIPATING IN THE STATE COURT PROCEEDINGS FOR ALMOST 5 YEARS.

11. In the probate matter, Petitioner Kevin McKeown filed approximately 20 Motions and has made at least as many applications in writing and in Court for various types of relief. He has also appeared in Court probably in excess of 25 times since September 2003. Although he is presently representing himself pro se, he has been represented by two separate legal counsel in the past.

12. In Hill v. Citicorp, 804 F. Supp. 514 (S.D.N.Y. 1992), the Court in remanding a case ruling that Petitioner had waived their right to removal by participating in State Court proceedings stated at p. 517:

In cases removed under section 1446, defendants who have filed a removal petition within the thirty-day limit may nevertheless waive their right to remove where they demonstrate an intention to litigate in the state forum. Such an intent is shown where defendants take affirmative action in state court, such as initiating motion practice, not where their action in state court is merely defensive, such as responding to an ex parte order to show cause. See [8] Heafitz v. Interfirst Bank of Dallas, 711 F. Supp. 92, 96 (S.D.N.Y. 1989) (Leisure, J.).

As the court in Heafitz explained, “the basic inquiry involves the nature of the action taken in state court before the removal petition is filed . . . ‘If the motion is made only to preserve the status quo ante and not to dispose of the matter on its merits, it is clear that no waiver has occurred. On the other hand, if a motion seeks a deposition, in whole or in part, of the action on its merits, the defendant may not attempt to invoke the right to remove after losing on the motion.’” 711

F. Supp. At 96 (quoting Bolivar Sand Co. v. Allied Equipment, Inc., 631 F. Supp. 171,173 (W.D. Tenn. 1986).

C. PETITIONER HAS WAIVED HIS RIGHT TO REMOVAL SINCE HE IS ONLY SEEKING TO “APPEAL” ADVERSE DECISIONS AGAINST HIM IN THE STATE COURT PROCEEDING.

13. The three decisions which Petitioner claims form the basis for removal were adverse against him and two were granted upon his default.

14. In Kiddie Rides USA Inc. v. Elektro-Mobiltechnik GMBH, 579 F. Supp. 1476 (C.D. Ill. 1984), the Court ruled in remanding a case back to State Court:

[*1480] However, the Defendant may not, after having argued and lost an issue in state court, remove the action to federal court for what is in effect an appeal of the adverse decision. O.G. Orr & Co. v. Fireman’s Fund Ins. Co., 36 F.2d 378 (S.D.N.Y. 1929); In Re 73rd Precinct Station House, Borough of Brooklyn, 329 F. Supp. 1175 (E.D.N.Y. 1971).

All things being equal, the Court would probably deny remand based solely on the waiver grounds. However, the background of this case indicates that Plaintiff may simply be seeking review of the adverse state decision. After the order of attachment was entered, Defendant entered a special appearance and moved to vacate the order of attachment. It was not until the motion had been denied that Defendant sought removal.

The actions taken by the Defendant combined with the untimeliness of the removal, are sufficient to constitute a waiver on the part of the Defendant.

15. Kevin McKeown by filing the Petition for Removal is attempting to “appeal” three adverse decisions.

D. THE STATE COURT MATTER IS A “PURELY PROBATE” STATE SURROGATE’S COURT PROCEEDING AND THE FEDERAL COURTS HAVE NO JURISDICTION OVER THESE MATTERS.

16. The underlying State matter is a “purely probate” matter which the Federal Courts have consistently declined to accept.

17. The underlying matter is the Administration of the Estate of Margaret A. McKeown. The Second Circuit Court of Appeals in Lefkowitz v. The Bank of New York, 528

F.2d 102, 2007 U.S. App. Lexis 15337 (2nd Cir. 2007) clarified the “Probate Exception” to federal jurisdiction subsequent to the Supreme Court’s ruling in Marshall v. Marshall, 547 U.S. 293, 126 S. Ct. 1735, 164 L. Ed. 480 (2006).

18. In Lefkowitz, which was a case dealing with a Motion to Dismiss and not on a Motion to Remand, the Second Circuit upheld those portions of the dismissal that were involved with the administration of the Estate, probate of a will or any other purely probate matter.

The Court in Lefkowitz, ruled:

“The Complaint in Moser alleged several counts of fraudulent concealment and constructive fraud in connection with probate of the decedent’s will. After analyzing the probate exception, we held that the action pending in the federal court was “nothing more than a thinly veiled will contest.” Id. at 340-41. Noting that the federal court’s determination of whether the defendants acted fraudulently would predetermine the result to be reached in the Surrogate’s Court -- the petitioner would be able to set aside the Probate Decree in state court only if she could show her consent had been obtained by fraud -- we concluded that the action in federal court would “interfere with probate proceedings” and dismissed the case under the probate exception. Id. at 342.

19. In this case, Kevin McKeown seeks to have the Probate Proceeding removed to Federal Court. Such removal is clearly improper.

20. The Court under any of the four above enumerated sections should remand this case to Surrogate’s Westchester Court where the Court has already ruled upon the final disposition of the Estate of Margaret McKeown.

WHEREFORE, you deponent respectfully that the Court issue an immediate order pursuant to 28 USCS 1447 remanding this case to Surrogate’s Court Westchester County together with such other and further relief which this court deems proper.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Respondent in the above captioned proceedings,

Kevin McKeown, hereby removes all matters in the Estate of Margaret A. McKeown to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Foley Square) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446, the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), inter alia.

Timeliness of the Notice - This notice is timely under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) as three (3) orders, dated June 16, 2008, June 19, 2008 and one undated, but submitted June 13, 2008, set forth removable federal claims which triggered the thirty-day removal period. (See attached Exhibit "A")

Nature of the Claims to be Removed - As the removed Estate matters are currently the underlying subject of a federal action in the Southern District of New York (Foley Square) before the Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin (08cv2391) (SAS) involving 28 U.S.C. § 1331, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1343(3), 42 U.S.C. §1983 and the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and as the three actions are alleged to have been advanced under the color of law Within the preceding 30 days, removal is timely and appropriate.

Under the color of law, the Surrogate's Court of Westchester County, and state actors, have acted without Jurisdiction in the estate since November 4, 2003, as the lack of the proper substitution of a party in an action renders all subsequent orders null and void as the court lacks jurisdiction (see, Bossert v Ford Motor Co., 140 AD2d 480; Silvagnoli v Consolidated Edison Employees Mut. Aid Socy., 112 AD2d 819). Accordingly, each and every order in the Estate of Margaret A. McKeown since November 4, 2003 is VOID as a matter of law (see, Byrd v Johnson, 67 AD2d 992). (See also, CPLR 1015, 1021). This action is separable as the herein respondent is the only respondent to advance the required action, inter alia. (See Exhibit "A")

When a federal court has jurisdiction over its case in chief, as does the district court here, the All-Writs Act grants it ancillary jurisdiction to issue writs "necessary or appropriate in aid of" that jurisdiction. Even before a federal judgment is reached, however, the preservation of the federal court's jurisdiction or authority over an ongoing matter may justify an injunction against actions in state courts. Such "federal injunctive relief may be necessary to prevent a state court from so interfering with a federal court's consideration or disposition of a case as to seriously impair the federal court's flexibility and authority to decide that case." Atlantic Coast Line R.R. Co. v. Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, 398 U.S. 281, 295, 90 S.Ct. 1739, 1747, 26 L.Ed.2d 234 (1970) (dicta)(Anti-Injunction Act). Additionally, the recent 3 actions under the color of law grants jurisdiction to this federal district court. See also In re Diet Drugs, 282 F.2d 220, 231-232 (3d Cir.

2001), as to the notice of removal base on §1651(a), as immediately stripping the state court of jurisdiction, equivalent to a notice based on 28 U.S.C. §§1441 and 1446(d); see also Neuman v. Goldberg, 159 B.R. 681, 685 (S.D.N.Y., 1993); United States v. City of New York, 972 F.2d 464, 469 (2d Cir. 1992). The critical interest to be served here by removal is preservation of the District Court's own jurisdiction. Thus, the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651 provides a sufficient basis for removal.

CONCLUSION

For all the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully suggested following removal per Local Civil Rule 1.6, the Clerk should assign this matter to the Hon. Shira A. Scheindlin (08cv2391)(SAS).

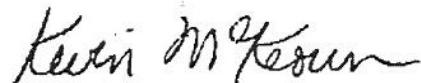

WHEREFORE, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1446 and 1651, Respondent hereby removes all matters in The Estate of Margaret A. McKeown (West. Surrogate's Court Index # 2239/2003) to the United State District Court for the Southern District of New York (Foley Square).

DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY

The undersigned declares under penalty of perjury that he is the plaintiff in the above action, that he has read the above 1st amended complaint and that the information contained in the complaint is true and correct, 28 U.S.C. § 1746; 18 U.S.C § 1621.

Respectfully submitted,

LOEHR - ACTING SURROGATE

The following papers numbered 1 to 7 were read on the motions of Mary Virga, Thomas McKeown and of the Public Administrator for Judicial Settlement of Account.

Papers Numbered

Notice of Motion of Mary Virga -Exhibits	1
Notice of Cross Motion of Thomas McKeown	2
Exhibits	3
Notice of Cross-Motion of George Lambert - Exhibits	4
Affidavit in Partial Opposition of Lindgren	5
Affidavit in Opposition of Streng	6
Reply Affirmation of Walsh	7

Upon the foregoing papers, Mary Virga filed a Petition for Judicial Settlement of Account as Preliminary Executrix of the estate on September 30, 2007. On May 30, 2008 the Court approved Mary's Preliminary Accounting and directed that a decree be submitted.

The decree was signed on June 30, 2008.

The Public Administrator has submitted his final accounting of the within Estate by the filing of a Petition of Judicial Settlement of Account of Administrator, CTA. Mary's Decree includes payments not yet made which must be deducted from the Public Administrator' balance on hand of estate assets:

a. $5,000.00 to John Virga for funds advanced to the estate for administrative expenses; and

b. $7,846.99 in commissions to Mary as Preliminary Executrix.

The Public Administrator sought the following relief:

a. That the legal fees of Delbello Donnellan Weingarten Wise & Wiederkehr LLP for their legal services in these proceedings in the amount of $105,460.43 be approved and paid with leave to request additional legal fees upon submission of appropriate supporting documentation. The application is granted.

b. That the Public Administrator be allowed commissions in the amount of $22,830.19. The application is granted.

c. That the Public Administrator be allowed costs in the amount of $5,513.37. The Application is granted.

d. That the legal fees of Parisi & Patti, LLP in the amount of $2,700.00 be approved. The application is granted.

e. That the professional/accountant fees of Hoberman, Miller, Goldstein & Lesser, P.C. In the amount of $3,100 be approved. The application is granted.

f. That the Public Administrator be authorized to hold a reserve of $750.00. The application is granted.

g. That the claims of the City of Yonkers, Discover Financial Services and CitiCorp Credit Services be denied. The Application is granted.

h. That Mary be reimbursed $830.29 as and for administrative expenses she incurred as Preliminary Executrix. The application is granted.

i. That John Virga be reimbursed the amount of $5,000.00 as and for a loan he made to the estate. The application is granted.

j. That the sum of $5,000.00 be paid to Our Lady of Perpetual Help pursuant to Article Third A of the decedent's Last will and Testament. The Application is granted.

k. That the decedent's silverware be distributed to Mary pursuant to Article Third B of the decedent's Last Will and Testament. The application is granted.

l. That the estate, after payment of outstanding expenses of administration, be paid pursuant to Articles Fourth and Fifth of the decedent's Last Will and Testament. The application is granted.

m. That the Public Administrator and his bond be released and discharged. The application is granted.

By Order dated June 16, 2008 Kevin's Answer and Objections were stricken by the Court. Kevin is not entitled to any payment out of the estate because the Judgments entered against his interest in the estate, together with interest, the amount of unpaid loans by the decedent to Kevin, and the amounts withdrawn by Kevin from the decedent's bank accounts exceed any payments that would otherwise have been payable to Kevin from the estate. There is currently $130,288.30 in Judgments and interest against Kevin's interest in the estate and Kevin is indebted to the estate in the minimum amount of $160,000.00.

Thomas is not entitled to any payments out of the estate because he is indebted to the estate in the minimum amount of $200,000.00 the amount of unpaid loans to Thomas from the decedent which exceed any payments that would otherwise have been payable to Thomas pursuant to the decedent's Lat Will and Testament.

The distribution to Mary should be reduced by $14,051.00, the amount of unpaid loans by the decedent to Mary.

The distribution to Deborah should be reduced by $17,251.39, the amount of unpaid loans by the decedent to Ronald and Deborah.

Settle a decree.

The foregoing constitutes the Decision and Order of the Court.

Probate Proceeding, Miscellaneous and Accounting Proceedings in the Estate of

MARGARET A. MCKEOWN,

Deceased.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

File No.: 2239/2003

STATE OF NEW YORK)

COUNTY OF NEW YORK) ss.:

KEVIN McKEOWN, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a distributee of the above named Decedent, Margaret A. McKeown ("Decedent"), a legatee under the Last Will and Testament of said Decedent, and the nominated co-Executor under said Last Will. I am familiar with the facts and I make this Affidavit in support of my Motion for an Order substituting Michael Mason Smith, as administrator of the Estate of Ronald P. McKeown, Jr., as party in the herein action, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

BACKGROUND

2. On September 4, 2003, Preliminary Letters Testamentary were issued to Petitioner, Kevin McKeown, and his sister, Mary M. Virga. That submission was prepared, executed and filed by New York attorney Joseph McQuade, who had been jointly and formally retained, and paid, by the two named co-executors. Initially, proper service, notice and attorney appearances were filed by the decedent's four interested children: the herein petitioner ("Kevin"), Mary Virga ("Mary"), Ronald P. McKeown, Jr. ("Ronald") and Thomas J. McKeown, Sr. ("Thomas").

3. Kevin McKeown's Preliminary Letters were temporarily suspended by an ex parte Order dated the 8th day of October, 2003, upon a verified petition that had been prepared, executed, notarized and filed in court by my own co-retained attorney, Joseph McQuade. To be clear, on October 8, 2003, attorney Joseph McQuade, and while simultaneously representing co-clients Kevin and Mary, he (McQuade) filed ex parte papers on behalf of one co-client (Mary) against another co-client (Kevin) in the same matter (the herein estate).

4. Upon presentation of public records, inter alia, showing Mary Virga's status as a convicted felon, her authority was suspended on October 28, 2003 by order of this court. (Note: Kevin McKeown is not a convicted felon) Later, Ms. Virga replaced attorney McQuade with Mr. Thomas K. Lindgren, Esq., and who subsequently filed a Notice of Appearance on behalf of Ms. Virga. While represented by attorney Thomas Lindgren, Ms. Virga formally advised the court through filings that she was formally withdrawing any and all desire to be a co-fiduciary of the herein estate.

5. At all relevant times, Ronald and Thomas were jointly represented by the same attorney, first Magdalen Gaynor, Esq., and subsequently, and by proper substitution, McCarthy Fingar, LLP, and as formerly known in these proceedings as McCarthy, Fingar, Donovan, Drazen & Smith, LLP.

Prior to November 4, 2003

6. Prior to November 4, 2003, the court through filings, and all attorneys of record, by proper copy and service of all pleadings, were knowledgeable that Ronald P. McKeown, Jr. had "...a $250,000.00+ Federal tax lien filed against him... and a [then] $492,158.00 judgment... [$1,618,482.84 as of December 10, 2007] by the State of Texas and filed in [his, Ronald's] home state of Connecticut." The attorneys were also informed that Ronald was then out on bail after being arrested for allegations involving his theft of over $140,000.00 in 9/11 American Red Cross funds and had, as a result, pending claims against him by the American Red Cross, as well as the State of Connecticut. Also, all parties interested herein, and their attorneys, were knowledgeable of the fact that Ronald had been under in-patient and out-patient psychiatric care, pursuant to a criminal court order, for the then-preceding year. (See Kevin McKeown Affidavit in Opposition of Removal/Suspension, filed October 16, 2003)

November 4, 2003

7. On November 4, 2003, Ronald P. McKeown, Jr. committed suicide. To date, and now over four years later, a proper substitution of Ronald's interest as a party in the herein estate, has never been made. This defect was brought to my attention on Thursday, January 18, 2008,

Without the Proper Substitution of a Party, This Court Lacks Jurisdiction

8. I was advised that it is well settled that the lack of the proper substitution of a party in an action renders all subsequent orders null and void as the court lacks jurisdiction (see, Bassett v Ford Motor Co., 140 AD2d 480; Silvagnoli v Consolidated Edison Employees Mut. Aid Socy., 112 AD2d 819) The Surrogate's Court of Westchester County has not had jurisdiction in my mother's estate since November 4, 2003, except as to the never properly adjudicated issues concerning the proper substitution of Ronald as an interested party.

There was a Filing, But Not a Party Substitution

9. It is uncontested that within days after Ronald's death on November 4, 2003, the attorney of record for Ronald prior to his (Ronald's) death, presented for filing in the Surrogate's Court a purported, and heavily contested by me, assignment of interest in the herein estate. I have been recently informed that Ronald's death terminated his attorney's power to act on his behalf (Wisdom v Wisdom, 111 AD2d 13). Alarmingly, just days before Ronald's death, the purported assignment had been prepared for, and executed by, Ronald- an assignor known to have attempted suicide numerous times within the previous year. And despite the attorney's knowledge that his authority to act as attorney on behalf of the assignor upon his (the assignor's) death, that attorney caused the assignment to be presented to this court within days of his death. Notably, and as a result of Ronald's death, the herein estate proceedings were stayed as a matter of law on November 4, 2003, but improperly not in practice, pending the substitution of a legal representative (Weber v Bellinger, 124 AD2d 1009). Accordingly, each and every order in the Estate of Margaret A. McKeown since November 4, 2003 is VOID as a matter of law (see, Byrd v Johnson, 67 AD2d 992).

Another Filing but Still Not a Proper Party Substitution

10. On or about December 16, 2003, Charles A. Giulini, Jr., Esq., of Giulini & Giulini, filed a Notice of Appearance on behalf of the purported assignee of Ronald's purported assignment. In fact, Ronald's purported assignment was filed in the Westchester County Surrogate's Court as an attachment to attorney Charles A. Giulini's December 16, 2003 Notice of Appearance on behalf of the assignee, Ronald's widow. However, and though the assignment at issue was paid for and presented to the court in November of 2003, it was, by way of a court "administrative oversight" not formally entered in this court until July of 2007 (see, Court Clerk's July 2007 dated letter). At all times relevant, the Giulini attorneys advanced their fraud upon this court, the second department appellate division and the estate.

11. While I believe relief from damages caused me by the outrageous acts meant to defraud me, this court, the States of Connecticut and Texas, The American Red Cross and my mother's intentions are warranted, they are for another day in subsequent proceedings. I simply wish to note here that the clear purpose of the assignment was to improperly prefer the assignee over the known laws of New York and the claims of legitimate creditors. In fact, the assignee avoided filing Ronald's will for probate in Connecticut even though she was the sole beneficiary under that will (Note: she was NOT the named executor of Ronald's will). The attempt to conceal a will is a criminal act under Connecticut law. The East Lyme Connecticut Probate Court created, by decree signed December 9, 2004, an estate in the name Ronald P. McKeown, Jr. - 13 months after his death, and only upon MY application. Even then, a proper substitution was never filed in these proceedings. In addition, the assignor's will was not produced until almost ten months after his death and, again, only after I petitioned the Connecticut Probate Court for a Connecticut administrator to be appointed. Only then did the will get presented. (Section 18 of the Connecticut Probate Law requires that a will be presented for filing within 30 days of death. Connecticut General Statutes section 45-165 makes it a crime to conceal any testamentary instrument after death.) Notably, New York attorney Christine Giulini, and who has improperly and actively appeared in herein estate proceedings after November 4, 2003, was, at all times relevant, also admitted to practice law in the state of Connecticut and fully familiar with estate filing requirements in both states.

12. The purported assignment is not valid as it was drafted, executed, filed and relied upon to defraud known creditors in violation of New York Debtor & Creditor Law 273 and 273-a, inter alia. By law, it is not a valid instrument to be relied upon. Deborah Smith's standing as a purported assignee has always been improper, contrary to law, and not in the best interest of the Estate of Margaret McKeown. The improper presence of Deborah Smith McKeown as assignee has only been a detriment to the herein proceedings. Michael Smith as fiduciary of Ronald's Connecticut estate has always had standing in the herein estate, but he has chosen to neglect his obligation where there is a clear conflict between seeing his sister gain through the fraudulent assignment, or honoring his duty to gather assets in NY for deposit into the CT estate and where creditors claims should be paid.

13. To date, no proper party substitution has ever been made by: (a) the assignee Deborah Smith; (b) Ronald's estate's administrator, Michael Smith; (c) New York attorney Charles A. Giuliani, Jr.; (d) New York and Connecticut admitted attorney Christine Giulini; (e) former estate attorney Joseph McQuade; (f) The Public Administrator, George Lambert; (g) The Public Administrator's attorney Daniel Walsh; or (h) Robert A. Korren, Esq., who at all times relevant was the attorney for the Public Administrator, and who advised me in February of 2008 that he, in fact, knew that Ronald's death stayed all estate proceedings and that no orders should have been made until a proper party was substituted. I believe the public administrator and his law firm's collective failure to insure proper party substitution DEMANDS their immediate and permanent disassociation with the herein estate, and proper referral to appropriate agencies for investigation and action.

14. The current application is essential to the long-overdue administration of my mother's estate. In Brown v Konczeski, 242 A.D.2d 847, that court, while firm in the lower court's lack of jurisdiction pending proper party substitution, commented that, "[w]e note that the application on appeal was not a motion to dismiss for failure to substitute a personal representative within a reasonable time made on notice to the persons interested in the estate (see, CPLR 1015, 1021)" I, acting without an attorney at all times relevant, only became aware of this deficiency on Thursday, January 17, 2008, and have been severely prejudiced, harmed and damaged by the numerous and purported orders issued since November 4, 2003. Once the required proper party substitution of party is made, I intend to seek appropriate redress as constitutionally guaranteed.

15. The well-known intention of my mother, right up until the moment she died, to see that the American Red Cross monies taken by Ronald be repaid. DEMANDS long-awaited justice in these proceedings. I have been severely harmed by not going along with the intended criminal acts of those who advanced the fraudulent assignment and who knowingly failed to file required on-notice substitution of party papers. I have no other adequate remedy of law.

WHEREFORE, your deponent respectfully prays that the Court enter an Order substituting Michael Mason Smith, as administrator of the Estate of Ronald P. McKeown, Jr., as party in the herein action, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
